

GEOFF DIEHL FILES WITH MASSACHUSETTS OCPF

"COMMITTEE TO ELECT GEOFF DIEHL" ORGANIZED

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BOSTON, MA (2/25/09): Geoff Diehl filed paperwork today to organize an exploratory committee for State Representative of the General Court of the Massachusetts Legislature.

Diehl said, "The results of the 2008 national and state elections motivated me to take a hard look at what I could do to make a difference. I take an active role in my home town of Whitman and think that the legislature could use more input about what's good for the towns that make up the Commonwealth."

The 7th Plymouth District comprises the towns of Abington, East Bridgewater and Whitman. Filing requires that a Treasurer also be named in the forms and Geoff chose Desie Collins of Whitman, a veteran accountant for several campaigns, to keep a close eye on the books.

"I've received a lot of positive feedback about my potential candidacy and I want to take the process a step further. By organizing a committee, I can take the action needed to canvass the district and learn more about the issues that aren't being addressed by our elected officials." concluded Diehl.

ABOUT DISTRICT / CANDIDATE:

The 7th Plymouth District includes all of Abington, East Bridgewater and Whitman. Notable State Representatives from this District include Michael Sullivan, former U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts and former Plymouth County DA, and Andrew Card, former White House Chief of Staff under George W. Bush.

This is the first time Geoff Diehl has considered a run for political office. He resides in Whitman with his wife, KathyJo, and their two daughters, Kaylee and Emily. Diehl is an Eagle Scout, a graduate of Lehigh University and an Account Executive with Poyant Signs. Geoff is also a member of the Whitman Finance Committee as well as the South Shore and MetroSouth Chambers of Commerce. He and his wife co-own Boss Academy of Performing Arts, located in Hanson.
